Mt. Shiloh News

"That thou mightest fear the Lord thy God, to keep all his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged." Deuteronomy 6:2.

The senior choir anniversary will be celebrated on the first Sunday in September at 7:00 p.m. The Golden Trumpeteers will be in concert to render music for the occasion. Friends are welcome to attend and we would graciously appreciate the presence of our members.

The Central Baptist Sunday Union met at Mt. Obed at 10:00 a.m. Ms. Georgia Flashman, vice-president, presided over the business meeting and Mrs. Margaret Harvey conducted the Young People's Hour. Mt. Shiloh was well represented with the superintendent, Mr. William B. Turner, delegates, and other members attending. Let's continue to pray for the needy, and the sick and shut-in.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden: And I'll give you rest. St. Mathews 11c28v.

There was regular preaching service at Mt. Pleasant the fourth Sunday. We had a nice service. Rev. Napier was at his post.

That afternoon Rev. Napier preached a soul stirring sermon at St. Paul Baptist Church of Forest, Va. at 3 p.m. along with Community Gospel Chorus. Ushers went with him. Also Mrs. Etta Edward, Rev. John Edward, Mrs. Gracie Walker, and Mrs. Odell Chambers, Rev. E. R. Berryman Jr. of Lynchburg.

Bible & Daily Living

Creation and earth's start

By WILLIAM L. TRIMYER
MORNING HAS BROKEN
Lesson for September 6, 1981
Bible Study Passages: Genesis 1:12:3

Introduction

Much has been made over the issue of creation and the earth's origin. In fact, some have spent so much time arguing over the issue of creation vs. evolution that they have missed the wonder of it all.

Whether the earth and its inhabitants came into existence in a week's time or through the lengthy process of evolution is not the main point. God is capable of creating in any way he chooses. The main point is that we are here because of a loving and creating God who is behind and involved in the created order. The beauty of creation is seen and reflected in the many natural wonders we humans witness each day. This same beauty is also reflected in the uniqueness of the human mind of man. You and I are uniquely created individuals. The words of the psalmist echoes this notion when he says, ". . . I am fearfully and wonderfully made."

The God Who Creates [Gen. 1:1-3]

Some have mistakenly labeled the Book of Genesis as a scientific account of the earth's origin. The Hebrew writers were not concerned to record the scientific happenings of their day. They were mainly concerned to express their faith in the author of all life. The universe and human life is only understood when we hold them up to the notion of a divine plan. The divine plan and purposes of God began to unfold when ". . . the Spirit of God moved upon the water."

All of life is a gift of God and ought to be handled as such. When God created the earth, he did not hand us a blank check and say, "Go have a ball." God intends for us to exercise responsibility in our care for his creation. Over the years, however, people have "raped" the earth of its resources and depleted some to the point where we had to stop and consider what we were doing to ourselves and to future generations.

God's Good Gifts [Gen. 1:9-25]

The creation of God has been good to us. Out of the fertile ground comes the blessings of good food. Our existence depends upon the earth's ability to remain fertile and productive. There is a danger, however, that we are killing ourselves with the overuse and chemicals. The state in which the author lives has the highest incidence of cancer per capita of all other states. Illinois is not an industrial center, but it is a part of the world's breadbasket. Pesticides and herbicides are used in abundance here, which may be a significant contributor to the problem of cancer in our state. The point is that we must exercise care of the earth if we want to continue on our journey.

Of course, the star of God's creation was his formation of man and woman. We are designed in the image of God, not in any physical semblance, but in the sense that, like him, we can love, think communicate, transcend, and participate in the art of creation. Our likeness of God, when achieved, is in terms of our spiritual and moral nature. We were created to fellowship with God. Life is a gift pure and simple that should be celebrated each new day.

The Finished Product [Gen. 2:1-3]

Sabbathkeeping has a long-standing history within the Jewish faith. The sabbath was seen as a day of rest for both God and man. On this one day everyone, including animals were to rest from their labors.

The secular mindset has sabotaged the Lord's day and made it a day like any other. Many religious persons ignore the sabbath as a day of rest and break for worship. Sunday is supposedly the Christian's celebration of Christ's redemptive work.

God rested from his work to appreciate his accomplishments. Our workaholic schedule often inhibit our time and our leisure to enjoy what we work so hard to have. It is important to "stop and smell the roses along the way." Life is better managed and appreciated when we can pause from our labors to worship, rest and play.

(Dr. Trimyer is Chaplain at Burnham Hospital in Champaign, Illinois. (WLYP)

Times-Virginian Church News

Canaan service set

The regular worship service will be held at Canaan Baptist Church Sunday, Sept. 13, at 11:30 a.m. Pastor, the Rev. C. L. Elliott, will be in charge of the service.

Music will be provided by the Senior Choir, and communion will be shared at the service.

The public is invited to visit the church and worship with its congregation.

Galilee trip a success

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our co-workers and friends for their splendid cooperation and concerted efforts that made our Special Day in Turner Station, Maryland, a real pleasure.

We are pleased and happy that so many were greeted by friends, relatives and loved ones at the Union Baptist Church. Above all, we express our thanks and gratitude to our heavenly Father for His supreme guidance.

The General Public is cordially invited to attend the regular preaching services this Sunday morning at 11 a.m.

A successful revival was reported at the Promise Land Baptist Church. Seven additions were made to the membership of the church. Beautiful music was rendered by local churches and groups each evening. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Jr. was the speaker for the week of meetings.

Mrs. Lottie Rogers, Mrs. Matilda Thompson and Mrs. Carrie Brice of Baltimore were weekend guests of their brothers and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Narrlad Watkins of Baltimore spent the weekend as the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. W. Hamlette and other relatives.

The following organizations and families entertained the pastor and his guests during the revival week: the Willing Workers Club, Mrs. Virginia Hancock and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Harvey.

In closing, let us continue to pray one for another. Have a most enjoyable week.

Under Penning Shows Old Fashioned Lattice Between Piers

OLD FASHIONED PORCH WRAPS ALL AROUND

FEATURE HOMES
© By W.D. FARMER

A truly gracious old fashioned house is shown here. There is a wide foyer with open rail stair, an enormous dining room and an old fashioned living room (parlor).

The family room is long and wide and features a fireplace, bookshelves and a door to the deck. There is a convenience half bath central and the stairs nearby under the stair up, for greater space utilization.

The country kitchen connects the breakfast area and work area. Cabinets are plentiful and built-ins are included. The laundry is set apart, and has room for ironing, cabinets and laundry tub.

There are four bedrooms up, the master being an enormous suite. The luxury master bath extends 19'6". It has an ornate tub with a step up, twin lavatory and vanity, separate shower and separate commode area. The closet is the full bedroom width and has drawers for extra storage.

The three remaining bedrooms are serviced by a central bath which includes twin lavatories and good closet space is shown throughout. A disappearing stair is shown for the attic storage.

The old fashioned exterior is enhanced by a wide porch that wraps all the way around to the sun deck. Stairs are shown on two sides of the house. There are dormer windows and construction is vertical wood siding. Windows are multi-lite and the foundation has latice between the piers. The garage is shown under the living-family area of this house.

The plan is number 2353. It includes 2,310 square feet of heated area. All W.D. Farmer plans include special construction details for energy efficiency and are guaranteed to meet all F.H.A. and V.A. requirements. For further information on plan 2353, write W.D.
